YOUR TOUR HOST

Steve Devine will be your rugby bus host and epitomises the spirit and passion of New Zealand rugby.

With a career spanning over a decade at the top level, Steve left his mark as a fierce competitor and crowd favourite. A loyal servant of Auckland rugby, he notched up 78 appearances for Auckland and 70 for the Blues in Super 12 Rugby – many of those battles fought on South African soil, on the very grounds we'll be visiting.

Steve earned his black jersey in 2002, debuting against England at Twickenham, and went on to play 10 tests including the 2003 Rugby World Cup.

A typical feisty halfback with a cheeky disposition and wicked sense of humour, his storytelling will bring our tour bus to life – expect tales of trans-Tasman rivalries, dressing room antics, and what it's really like to face down a fired-up Springbok pack.

Post-retirement, Steve turned his hand to broadcasting, co-hosting rugby shows on Sky TV and radio, and is fighting fires as a firefighter. With Steve Devine at the helm of our tour, expect laughter, insider insight, and a deep dive into the heart of rugby history. We're privileged to have Steve on board for this unforgettable journey as we explore the rugby heartland of South Africa.
