Overview

This trek is celebrated as the pinnacle of Patagonian hiking experiences, often compared to Queenstown on steroids and hailed as one of the most awe-inspiring trail systems globally. Breathtaking views, vast mountain ranges, glacial lakes and raw untamed vistas await. This is the Jewel in the Crown of Patagonias trail and hiking options.

The adventure doesn't stop there. Participants will also have the opportunity to explore the majestic Iguazu Falls, the largest waterfall system on the planet, for two days. Whether you're a seasoned trekking enthusiast or looking to check off items on your bucket list, this trip promises to be a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Throughout the journey, you'll be fully hosted and supported by exceptional guides who are passionate about showcasing the beauty and adventure of these iconic locations. Lace up your hiking boots and get ready for an adventure that combines cultural immersion with breathtaking natural landscapes.

Monday 10th November

Day 3: Torres del Paine / Camp Seron

Transfer by van to the Las Torres area. Today we start our trek around the Paine Massif. Head out across ancient glacial moraines on the way to camp Seron. The trail goes through Lenga forests where we can spot some wildlife. The hike today will be around 5 hours. Arrive to Camping Seron where the group will have dinner and rest up for tomorrow.

Meals included: Breakfast-Lunch-Dinner

Tuesday 11th November

Day 4: Camp Seron / Lake Dickson Camp

Eat an early breakfast before the hike to Lago Dickson, a glacial lake on the edge of the Southern Patagonia Icecap. Hike past bright blooming Notro bushes and cross a stream along the lake. A beautiful, leisurely hike that will take around 6 hours today. Arrive at Camp Dickson and opt for a hot shower and beer.

Meals Included: Breakfast-Lunch-Dinner

Wednesday 12th November

Day 5: Lake Dickson Camp / Los Perros Camp

Continue along the north side of the park to an incredible lookout point of Lake Dickson and the surrounding valley. Follow the trail through the tall forest to reach another lookout for Perros Glacier. Well worth the climb.

Meals included: Breakfast-Lunch-Dinner

Thursday 13th November

Day 6: Los Perros Camp / Grey Glacier Camp

Today is the toughest day of the O Trek. Start with an uphill climb of 2-3 hours, passing over the highest point. The beginning of the trail is through forest, but once you reach 800m of altitude, the path starts to get rocky and may become a little slippery. Take in the first view of Grey Glacier and gaze into the distance to take in its 270km sq spread. Climb vertical ladders and pass a suspension bridge en route to Grey Camp.

Meals Included: Breakfast-Lunch-Dinner

Day 7: Grey Glacier Camp

Enjoy the day exploring the Grey Lake and Grey Glacier. The spectacular scenery is a highlight of the trek with the backdrop of snow-capped mountains and floating pieces of piercing blue glacier. The afternoon is free for resting and exploring the area. Opt for a short trek along the west side of the Grey Glacier.

Meals included: Breakfast-Lunch-Dinner

Saturday 15th November

Day 8: Grey Glacier Camp / Paine Grande Camp

Head out on an optional morning kayak on the coast of Lake Grey with amazing views of Grey Glacier and its icebergs. Later, hike along Lake Grey to appreciate different viewpoints of the glacier. Hike to the famous W Trek and end at Lake Pehoe. Relax at Paine Grande Camp and share trekking stories with the other hikers.

Meals included: Breakfast-Lunch-Dinner

Sunday 16th November

Day 9: Paine Grande Camp / Cuernos Camp

Hike to the French Valley lookout to see the mountain range spread across the national park, take in the contrasting greens and greys of the landscape.

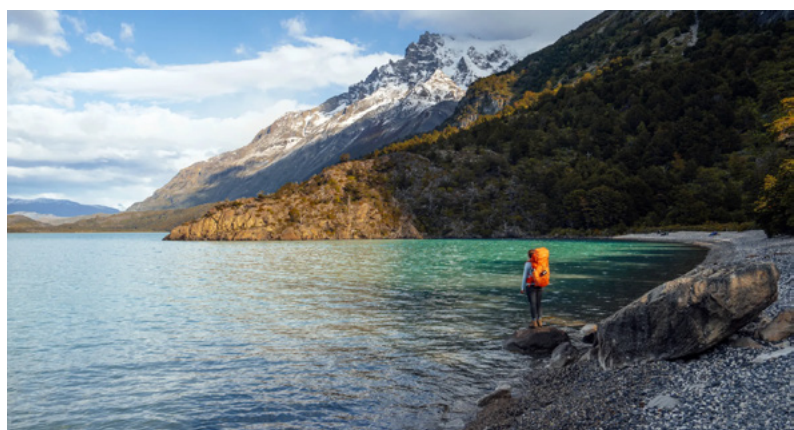

Meals included: Breakfast-Lunch-Dinner

Monday 17th November

Day 10: Lake Nordenskjold / Puerto Natales

The concluding day of the O circuit continues along Lake Nordenskjold. Take in the final views of Torres del Paine, reflect on the last nine days and relish in the sense of accomplishment before heading back to Puerto Natales.

Meals Included: Breakfast-Lunch
